

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL
MICHELLE HENRY, ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL

POSTPONED**

MEDIA ADVISORY**

Office of Attorney General Announces Expansion of Treatment Program in Luzerne County

WHO:

Michelle Henry, Acting Attorney General, Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General
Sam Sanguedolce, Luzerne County District Attorney
Chief Joe Coffay, Wilkes Barre Police Department
Ryan Hogan, SCA Administrator for Luzerne Wyoming Drug & Alcohol Programs

WHEN & WHERE:

POSTPONED for inclement weather

Luzerne County Courthouse Rotunda
200 N River Street, Wilkes Barre, PA 18711

MEDIA RSVP:

Credentialed media must RSVP to press@attorneygeneral.gov.

WHAT:

Acting Attorney General Michelle Henry announces the expansion of the Law Enforcement Treatment Initiative (LETI) in Luzerne County. PA LETI is a law enforcement-led treatment initiative that will allow Pennsylvanians in Luzerne County seeking treatment for substance use disorder to use their local law enforcement, county officials, and community stakeholders, to contact the Luzerne-Wyoming Drug and Alcohol Single County Authority for treatment services without the threat of arrest.

###

Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General
Strawberry Square
Harrisburg, PA 17120
717-787-3391